

BAY AREA MAN ATTEMPTS 200 SONGS IN ONE YEAR (LANDS AT PYSCH WARD)

INFO

Sonny Smith began his art project “100 Records” at the Headlands Center for the Arts residency program last March. 100 artists are making 45 rpm Record Jackets for fictional bands and singers. Then he is writing the music for these fictional characters. It debuts at Gallery 16 April 9th, 2010 for a five week run. On display will be the original 45 jackets by artists such as Mingering Mike, William Wiley, Chris Johansen, John Chiara and many more. Also in the gallery will be a customized jukebox which will play the corresponding songs.

The music is featuring performances from Bart Davenport, Kelley Stoltz, John Dwyer, Tim Cohen, Ty Segall, The Sandwiches among others.

Gallery 16 will be creating a limited edition box set, VOLUME 1, that will include a selection of the covers reproduced with an accompanying CD.

Turn Up Records is preparing VOLUME 2, a complimentary box set consisting of five of the 7”s cut on actual vinyl.
